Life, your gift from God. Living, your purpose, responsibly fulfilling the time He gives you in this world. Death, your legacy, leaving behind a spiritual heritage that counts eternally. . . . Dr. Gene Baillie shares his perspective on a part of life we all must face and offers encouragement and suggestions on making the best use of our time. Death also takes time in the sense you can prepare in advance of your own death for the transfer of your earthly possessions to others, or that process will take more time from your heirs after your death. Dr. Baillie includes an appendix with suggestions on how to handle some of the details before and after death.
