Scientific Style and Format is the most recognized, authoritative reference for authors, editors, publishers, students, and translators in all areas of science and related fields. This useful resource has been fully updated and expanded in the new seventh edition of the acclaimed CSE style manual. New chapters include "Publication Policies and Practices," which addresses the responsibilities of authors, editors, and peer reviewers, and "The Basics of Copyright," discussing copyright requirements and practices in the United States, United Kingdom, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand. Other chapters cover electronic and print publication, and authoritative online resources are included in all reference lists. Both American and British styles are included. Everyone involved in scientific publishing should have Scientific Style and Format, Seventh Edition, on hand.
