Holy Ghost Is My Friend: A Great Friend Who Must Never Be Ignored Again Wellington Boone

Holy Ghost Is My Friend is a revolutionary new way to understand your relationship with God. Jesus left behind a Comforter, the Holy Spirit, or Holy Ghost, as He is called in the King James Version of the Bible, to take His place with the disciples. Bishop Wellington Boone, a nationally known pastor and bishop, wrote this book to help Christians develop their Friendship with the Holy Ghost, whom Bishop Boone calls the most ignored Person of the Trinity. He includes hundreds of Scripture footnotes and references to the Holy Ghost in Bible history, along with vital information on the Baptism with the Holy Ghost. As a result of developing this Friendship, readers will increase their faith, build themselves up in the character of Christ-likeness, fulfill the will of God, and make a godly impact on their generation for Jesus Christ. Bishop Wellington Boone says, "We need Holy Ghost power and authority today more than ever. You need a depth of conviction that tells you that you are of God and what you want is what God wants. That assurance comes from being baptized in the Holy Ghost and totally given over to God."
