Stone & Blood (A Grey Guards of Avignon Tale Book 1) Robert Michael

When four protectors of the King are accused of treason, the strings that bind the kingdom of Avignon begin to unravel. One fateful night draws together allies and enemies, the faithful and the corrupt. It is a night of a full moon and an empty grave.

The Grey Guards are known for their loyalty and fealty to the crown of Avignon. They come from all walks of life but have one thing in common: they are sworn to protect the king. The accusation of treason is just one indication that something in the kingdom is amiss.

The lives of Lysander, Emilianno, Berry, and Moliere depend upon the word of the High Priest. The problem is, the priest has been tainted. The friends are left with a choice. Do they accept their fate or die defending their innocence?

Stone & Blood is the first book in The Four Grey Guards of Avignon series. Stone & Blood is a tale of betrayal and redemption, vengeance and friendship.
