BOUND IN BLUE

Gods walk among us.

All you have to do is See.

When Rhiannon discovers that beings out of myth and legend are real, her ability to see magic as color puts her at the center of a conflict with the ancient gods of Avalon. Her fate depends on mastering her power and using it to remake the Sword of Elements - once known as Excalibur - but if she succeeds, she could become far more dangerous than any god. And gods don't like being challenged.

CAUGHT IN CRIMSON

What if you were the monster of your own story?

Armed with Excalibur, Rhi must learn to control both her ability to see magic as color, and her hunger to possess it, but an ancient artifact of the earth magic keeps calling to her with a fire she may not be able to resist, even if it changes her into something she doesn't recognize, even if it destroys her. Rhi will have to decide whether her loyalties lie with humanity, or with the beings of the Grey Lands, her true home. The choices bound in magic are never black and white.

TO MAKE A WITCH

Queen bee at her old school, Lacey had ended up on the wrong side of a conflict between ancient gods and heroes. Looking to make a fresh start at an exclusive boarding school in New Orleans, she's also hoping to forget she'd almost become a powerful witch - and that she'd almost sold her soul for it. When the tomb of a Voodoo Queen is desecrated, and a gruesome murder is committed in the very heart of Westover Academy, Lacey realizes she could be next on the killer's list. Fate may once again makes Lacey McInnis—a good girl gone bad then good again—a witch.

TO MAKE A WITCH features the enigmatic Lacey McInnis from THE SWORD OF ELEMENTS SERIES in her own adventure. The events take place between BOUND IN BLUE and CAUGHT IN CRIMSON, but this story can be read on its own.
