One Hell of a Guy is Episode 1 in The Cambion Chronicles (A Paranormal Chick Lit Serial*). It is about 25,000 words in length.

Tell the truth and shame the devil ...

All her life, Lily has been told to "loosen up" and "live a little," but she likes her life the way it is: neat, tidy and logical. Sure, she can't tell a lie without getting queasy and she's picky about whom she goes to bed with, but she's not repressed. She's controlled.

Until she meets Sebastian.

With Sebastian, she feels like a different person, and she finds herself doing things she never thought she would. Plus, she can't seem to stay away from the guy - and every time she's near him, she wants to ... well, she just wants to.

There's something about him. Something not quite...human.

But when events take a dark and frightening turn, will Lily figure out the secret to his out-of-this-world appeal ... and if she does, what will she do about it?

 A serial is an ongoing larger work published in sequential installments. As such, The Cambion Chronicles are short—this pilot is 12 chapters and subsequent episodes are 10 chapters—and sometimes end on cliffhangers to lead you into the next episode. Those who don't like this format are encouraged to wait until such time as the entire series is collected in one volume, though that day is quite a bit in the future.
