The OSHA Answer Book - The Employers Guide That Answers Every OSHA Question and More!

Mark Mcguire Moran

There are many books written about OSHA but none that cover all this information in just one place. Every employer will want a copy of the new 10th edition- The Anniversary Issue- It is completely re-written, revised and updated with all the latest information. In the past 10 years, this book has sold more than 100,000 copies!

The OSHA Answer Book is your one-stop resource designed to provide you with quick answers to complicated issues. The new 10th edition includes:

- OSHA Recordkeeping - more than 100 new pages of recordkeeping materials.
- New requirements for protecting workers from Hexavalent Chromium exposure.
- New chapter on OSHA's response to protecting workers in the U.S. Gulf Coast spill..
- The New Injury and Illness Prevention Program.
- How the Obama Administration decides to inspect workplaces and why the average penalties are 10 times higher!
- The new addition to the OSHA 300 Column and;
- New additions to the Personal Protective Equipment, Acetylene, and Electrical standards!

This is a must-have for any business that wants to comply with OSHA regulations!

This book is an effort to place everything that employers need to know about OSHA in a single volume. It is a reference book, designed to be consulted frequently! Information on OSHA that every employer should have is contained within the pages of this book.

It is the author's hope that The OSHA Answer Book 10th edition. The Anniversary issue will help employers prevent countless injuries and even fatalities, while simplifying the OSHA compliance process.

But even if 1 life is saved, the effort of writing this book (and reading it) will have been worth it.

The OSHA Answer Book was written for 1 purpose only. I want to help employers prevent countless injuries and fatalities, while simplifying the OSHA compliance process.

Many of the OSHA standards imposed upon employers under the OSH Act are inflexible, complex, and detailed, while others are ambiguous and indefinite. There are few, if any employers, who can state with assurance that they are in compliance with all the OSHA requirements that apply in their particular workplace. That is why this book was written and will continue to be written!
