Readers who want to make the most of their lives - whether in business, prioritizing responsibilities, or getting the most out of every day - will find the motivation they need in this calendar. In it, successful people from all walks of life - sports (Babe Ruth), literature (Ralph Waldo Emerson), politics (Abraham Lincoln), and business (Bill Gates) - offer advice, tips, and inspiration that challenge readers to win each day. Quotes such as "Excellence is the gradual result of always striving to do better" as spoken by Pat Riley and "If we all worked on the assumption that what is accepted as true is really true, there would be little hope of advance" as spoken by Orville Wright inspire readers to reach for more. Addressing important topics like setting and achieving goals, dealing with criticism and setbacks, and developing a positive mental attitude, the Win The Day! 2002 Calendar can help anyone, whether corporate, entrepreneurial, or home-based, become more successful.
