A comprehensive, entertaining, and absorbing guide to Paris--the most romantic of cities. Whether travelers are looking for a cozy break for two, a shopping trip to the haute couture of the Place Vendôme, or a taste of the huge wealth of artistic heritage that graces the city, Cadogan provides all the information they need. A stylish full-color introduction opens the guide, illustrating the varied neighborhoods of Paris and offering ideas for sightseeing days, and the extensive cross-referenced maps guide them easily through these different areas. The text is peppered throughout with engaging cultural and historical knowledge, stories and anecdotes--all written in the enthusiastic, informed, personal way for which Cadogan is renowned.
