Throughout her career as a Certified Fundraising Executive, Janet Ginn has encountered the happy hearts of donors who have given generously to help others. The Circle of Giving honors these donors by recounting their stories about how their gifts have blessed their own families while lifting others out of despair. Mrs. Ginn shares her passion for ending world hunger through the Heifer Foundation and invites readers to discover their own personal missions. The book also provides important information about the variety of charitable giving instruments available and helps donors navigate the emotional and practical side of passing on their values as well as their valuables to family, friends, and a world in need.
