The Syndicate's Church R. D. Peterson

Robert Link, an ex-government assassin, exposes a Chicago crime syndicate's real goal in establishing a new age church, created solely to attract the indigent, as an unwilling source of inventory for the most valuable commodity on earth, human organs. Link interrupts his vacation to save a priest from a severe beating by the syndicate's enforcers leading to his discovery of the real purpose behind the Church of the New Blessings. Link is assisted by Debbie, a rookie FBI agent and two of his former assassin team members, Ortiz, the minister of pain and Rich the master of disguise. Debbie and Rich infiltrate the organization only to be held for "harvesting," as two perfect ebony specimens. Link uses the skills of his previous profession to save his friends as he pursues the syndicate's boss, known only as the "PS," or "parts supplier."
