This is by far the best concise overview of the life and work of Alexander Campbell we have seen. The original publication was a 43 page booklet containing two speeches delivered at Bethany College by Cochran (an attorney and historical novelist of Disciples of Christ background) and Garrett (a professor, church historian, and editor of Church of Christ background), along with a foreword by then president of the college, Perry Gresham. It is a companion to Garrett's comparative study of Alexander Campbell and Thomas Jefferson, also available in e-book format from SCM e-Prints.
