According to history, Sir Isaac Newton came up with the laws of physics, of gravity in particular, when he was relaxing under a tree and an apple hit his head.

Real simple techniques to help you "relax for cash".

Are you worried about how you're going to pay your bills?

Do you stress about how to make ends meet?

If you're losing sleep about your finances, you could be getting it all wrong.

The intention of this quick guide is to help you consider a different way of money making.

The words in this brief guide could give you what billionaire broadcaster Oprah Winfrey calls "A ha moments". Those moments of clarity when a light bulb goes off in your head.

Often, we are a slave of "stinking thinking".

I have to admit to having this crippling habit.

We look at our problems and think that there is no way out.

We often apply the same habits and thoughts to our finances and come up with the same, if any solutions.

Bear with me while I make a suggestion.

Just chill.

That's right.

The answer to your problems could be as simple as just changing your mental state from one of stress to one of relaxation.
