No one files bankruptcy frivolously or without having endured many sleepless nights searching for an alternative. But sometimes, there simply is no other way out of debt. Any number of things can force a person into bankruptcy unemployment, high medical bills, household emergencies and more. Even those with the best intentions of paying off their debt a little every month, come to realize they could lose their car, their home or that their debt could outlive them. That is when filing bankruptcy becomes the only way to experience a new financial beginning. Attorney Rodney Shepherd has a strong focus in bankruptcy law. His book is designed to help you understand how an experienced professional can map out a successful plan for your future. Shepherd is a Pittsburgh-based attorney working in criminal, family and Social Security law with a focus on consumer bankruptcy law. Rodney Shepherd opened his law practice in 1991 and has guided many clients through to successful outcomes of their cases. He has earned admittance to the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania, the Pennsylvania Bar Association, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court and the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys, among others. Mr. Shepherd graduated from Temple University School of Law with a Juris Doctor Degree. Before that, he received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Taylor University. Aside from his legal accomplishments, Mr. Shepherd's community involvement has included serving on the Mt. Lebanon School Board and membership in the Mt. Lebanon/Dormont Chamber of Commerce and the Pittsburgh chapter of Kiwanis International.
