The Life of Abraham Lincoln

Isaac N. Arnold

The Life of Abraham Lincoln Isaac N. Arnold

This historic volume was published in 1885.

Sadly, the author of this book died a few days after its completion. Mr. Arnold was a personal friend of President Lincoln's for a quarter of a century. Few had known Mr. Lincoln better than had Mr. Arnold and no man was more familiar with his life or had studied more profoundly his personal and political character or his public career.

In today's lingo, Mr. Arnold would be referenced as one who is "inside the beltway" or one who "has the President's ear".

Mr. Arnold covers the ancestry and early years of Mr. Lincoln, his early life at New Salem through the Illinois Legislature, his marriage, years in Congress, the organization of the Republican party, his debates with Mr. Douglas, his election and his years as the president.
