"This book will speak in a very simple and clear and, above all, to the point. For this text should be equally appropriate for Christians and non Christians, specialists and lay people as believers and non believers "(From the" Introduction "). Klaus Berger, the world famous Heidelberg theologian, who has devoted his life to researching the origins of Jesus and Christianity, sketches a picture of Jesus full of explosive force: strange, illustrious and provocative, the Galileo breaks into our time, crushed by reglasinterpretativas systems or sifting through ideological filters, or subordinate to psychological or sociological hypotheses models ready made. Rather, based on his deep knowledge of exegesis, the author presents the figure and message of Jesus confronting the questions of the present. This allows you to offer the rich sum of their knowledge, to say again and again, women and men today, why Jesus is important, and respond to people who rightly ask if Jesus can also mean today something for them. This book will spur both Christians and skeptics, to confront a whole new way with Jesus. KLAUS BERGER (Hildesheim, 1940), professor emeritus of New Testament Theology at the Evangelical Theological Faculty of Heidelberg, is among the most important theologians of Germany. Its original translation of the New Testament (Das Neue Testament und Schriften frühchristliche) caused a sensation. His scientific books have earned him great prestige among scholars, and popular books (Paulus, Sind Die Neuen Testaments Berichte des wahr?) Are at high spins and have been translated into many languages. Berger is opposed to the program of demythologizing of the biblical tradition and calls for stronger confidence in the text of the Bible. The Editorial Sal Terrae has published his work What is Biblical spirituality? Sources of Christian mysticism.
