Simply Marvellous Leigh Jarrett

A search for true love and self acceptance.

Annie Luka has always been home-schooled, but she's convinced her mother to let her attend public school for her graduating year. When it is learned that Annie Luka is actually Attila Luka; a beautiful cross-gender guy struggling with his identity, it tears a small group of friends apart. Only when they all reunite ten years later is the full extent of Attila's deception revealed, bringing some of the group closer together and pushing others further apart.

What transpires over the next few years after the reunion leaves Attila wondering if he'll ever find true love.
