In order to ensure everything is alright before taking a long trip abroad, wouldn't you tend to the most important things in your life first? You wouldn't want to wait until you are boarding the plane! A serious medical operation should be treated with the same care. When the wheels of our plane leave the ground it's too late to put Fido into a kennel or stop the mail delivery. The fear of death is common among humankind. How can we truly prepare for a time like that? This book points to the solution we all need-are you ready? Heaven and streets of gold await us, but will you be there? Our plane will land someday, and our destination will be of our own choosing. Today your ticket could be placed in your hand.
