Killing Time at the Lingerroot Inn John C. Dupré

When a car accident in the New England woods forces Eric Williams to take shelter at the foreboding Lingerroot Inn, he worries his business trip is a bust. But the moment he crosses the hotel's threshold, his job becomes the least of his troubles. The Lingerroot Inn is impossible. And if it weren't for the repeated attempts on his life and his compounding injuries, Eric would have sworn he died in that crash and had moved on to some fantasy world. But real or not, Eric needs to figure out what's going on there. And fast. For it's not only his budding romance with the hunky bartender—and his own life—that are danger, but everyone else trapped at the Lingerroot Inn as well.
