This is a Sweet Clean Standalone AMISH Short Story Romance

Jacob Miller has lost all faith in God. His kind and gentle wife Sarah was taken unexpectedly from him at a young age and the effect on his young son was so devastating that he can no longer speak.

Leaving the Amish community behind and turning his back on God, Jacob takes his son away to start a new life on their own.

Thirteen years later Beth, a young Amish woman, unexpectedly meets an enigmatic young beekeeper on her walk. She feels strangely drawn to this Englisch stranger who cannot speak.

The more Beth gets to know him, the stronger she feels about him and it seems as though he feels the same way too. But will her mother Martha ever understand her love for an English boy and how will Jacob overcome his anger at God and make peace with his son?

See how Gods hand guides the path of Martha and Beth to help Jacob and his son with unexpected consequences- in this gentle romantic story of repentance, forgiveness and love.
