Living With Dying: A Personal Journey Linda Pratt Mukai, Janis Fisher Chan

Living With Dying is Linda Mukai's story of her 2-1/2 year battle with the colon cancer that took her life on October 11, 1994. Working with author Janis Chan, Linda recorded her discoveries about communication, relationships, priorities, and the business of living so that those discoveries might help others with a terminal illness, as well as their families and friends, understand what to expect and how to cope.

The book also provides valuable insights for physicians, nurses, and other health care providers about a terminally ill person's needs, priorities, and expectations. It includes first-person accounts from friends and family and an extensive bibliography and resource list.
