"I was bored with the place. The issue I was having was similar to my problems with sex in my early 20's: Sensual Nihilism." - Luke Wood. Luke Wood is a 26-year-old bartender living in Auckland, New Zealand. When his long-term relationship falls apart, Luke is thrust into a change of situation that makes him question his place in the world. From living under a train station to bluffing through drug tests, Luke challenges himself and the life that has brought him to this point, and what the potential future may be. Scathing and unapologetic in his views, humor and interactions with people, Luke is a terrifying reflection of a young man lost in modern society.
