Shepherd's Cross: A supernatural thriller Mark White

The Amazon UK Number 1 Horror Bestseller!

Shepherd's Cross - an isolated, remote moorland village, renowned for being the last place in England to have executed a woman for witchcraft. Three hundred years later, the locals remain superstitious: aside from a handful of wealthy newcomers, modern society has passed by largely unnoticed...until the unexpected arrival of two mysterious strangers to nearby Fellside Hall; a derelict mansion that has stood empty for eighty years.

One by one, a series of harrowing events descends on the village, prompting Sergeant Brian Jennings and PC Cara Jones to investigate; a task made almost impossible by the relentless onslaught of winter. When prolonged snowfall isolates Shepherd's Cross from the outside world, the superstitions of the old-timers clash with the rational minds of the newcomers; challenging the community's strength and testing its resolve to rally together against an ancient horror unfolding around them...a horror that is intent on returning forever.

Fast-paced and utterly compelling, Shepherd's Cross is a supernatural thriller that will appeal to readers who enjoy the work of authors such as Stephen King, James Herbert and Graham Masterton.

Readers may also be interested to read Mark's latest novel, 'Enter The Dead', a ghostly story about possession, betrayal, and the fine line between hope and despair. Also available to purchase from Amazon.
