Angel Flying Too Close to the Ground Rosemary Fifield

A country singer, a tragic accident, an unborn child. Stephanie knows she should avoid the family of Ellis Walker. Her late boyfriend was responsible for Walker's death. But his family members keep coming into her life, and when she falls in love with one of them--a performer with a popular country band on the East Coast--she can no longer keep her distance. He's even willing to accept the unborn child she carries, not realizing who the father is.

But some secrets have a way of making themselves known, and some people should never be lied to.
