Eve's Odyssey - An Autobiography: A view of discrimination through a woman's eyes Patricia Parker
It has taken me many years to complete this as a story. I wrote it when events became overwhelming for me. It is part of diaries, part of what I remember at the time And mainly it is written from the heart. It is a true account from my point of view of what happened. I believe I am a Christian. I hope Christ accepts me as one. I believe I have a half-brother. I am not sure at this moment in time if this will ever be published. But if it were, should this benefit all My children and their families? And perhaps in its story there could be truths And good will come of its telling.
