On the threshold of marrying into one of America's founding families, TV news fixer Max Vanetti's plans are put on hold when his largest client buys fleabag television station WWJW from a pleasure-loving televangelist in the Florida Panhandle. His new assignment is simple: turn the bottom-rated station around in a month or else. Dispatched to the "Redneck Riviera," Vanetti burns the rulebook and tries a series of desperate ratings stunts, including one that sparks a parade of seductive women throwing themselves at the man with the self-described "morals of a monkey house." With its cockeyed view of local television and cross-eyed perspective on Man's favorite sport, "Horizontal Adjustment" is the tale of what happens when a man gets everything he asks for and gets it -- good and hard.
