Forgive Me Lord, For I Have Sinned

Mae Jane Mathison has never been the type to push the limits, or try something new. She's a studious librarian and church volunteer, so when she needs advice there's only one man she wants to turn to - the new Pastor, Brian Ellis.

What she doesn't know is Mr. Ellis had to leave his last church for a reason - namely, his habit of seducing lonely young women that grow close to him. Although determined to turn over a new leaf with his new church, he finds himself being tested by the lord.

When things get out of hand fast, word spreads in their quiet town and soon they'll both be forced to either run and hide, or face the music.

One thing is for sure - before redemption, they'll have to live in sin.

Nobody's Side Ho

Troy was hot, cocky, and arrogant. His new record deal definitely didn't help his personality change for the better.

So why did I fall for him?

A few drinks, some weed, and some soft words whispered in my ear that I knew he didn't really mean, and the next thing I knew he had me just how he wanted me - without using protection. He told me he loved me, but that love seemed to disappear the second he got what he wanted.

Well, he's about to learn that I'm not the basic bitch he thinks I am.

And if I act like a monster, it's only his fault for making me that way.

Two Strong White Russian

When Telah wins a free trip to Moscow, she's hesitant to take her man Jayden - he's done her wrong in the past, but even though her friends tell her to kick him to the curb she wants to believe he's changed. After three years together, it seems like he's finally ready to settle down and talk about marriage, a family, and kids. Her friend Natasha has a much different opinion of him, but Taleh disagrees and decides to take him with her.

When they arrive in Moscow things take a big turn when a hurtful, embarrassing and degrading public confrontation with Jayden leaves her with a serious choice to make. Little does she know that the two Russian club owners involved in some serious dirt have their eye on her - and they're more than willing to put Jayden in his place.

Caught up in the moment, she allows herself to be swept away by the Russians - but is she just giving up one scumbag for two?

One thing is for sure... The Russians want to claim her rough, unprotected, and at the same time - and when you're in the Russian mafia, you always get what you want.

No matter the consequences.

These book contains sex scenes and are for adult readers of BWWM romance only.
