Ayn Rand's epic 1957 novel, "Atlas Shrugged", depicts a world spinning out of control with soaring government spending, crippling regulations, ever increasing assaults on individual liberty, and the disappearance of society's most productive. It was a novel many said could never be successfully adapted to a film. This is the story of one man's decades long journey to go against the odds and bring Ayn Rand's warning to silver screens across the world. This is how it happened.
