Black Families (SAGE Focus Editions)

Black Families (SAGE Focus Editions)

The second edition of this classic text reflects demographic shifts, updates ongoing research and expands into newly relevant areas.

The four sections separate:

} Historic and Theoretical Conceptualizations of African-American Families } Demographic, Economic, Mobility and Educational Patterns } Male-Female Relationships in African-American Communities } Socialization within African-American Families

In each section major issues, theories and empirical findings are presented in close relationships to each other.
