Dirty Red Ah'Mareia

Abused used and misled Red stills remains naive in this game called life. Sheltered from the wrath of the beast never would Red have imagined life being so cold and heartless as she began her journey on the streets and the age of seventeen. Like always Red's mother tried her best to protect her from the realities of life, sheltering her from the possibilities if only she'd given her daughter the freedom her naïve little mind wished for. But during a store robbery turned brutal murder Red receives the first taste of life was like on the mean streets of Chicago. Grieving the loss of her mother Red soon began to realize what freedom actually meant. But with no one to turn to Red turns to the streets in hopes that it could give back what it had taken, Love! But what she failed to realize was that these streets were as cold as a winter night and Red was nowhere near prepared for what the street life had to offer her. From being brutally raped and left for dead to being beaten, abused and sold empty dreams Red becomes broken, ego bruised and whatever dignity she had left had been stripped from within her like sheep's skin. Red still can't decide which is worse? The freedom that she once wished for or the overprotectiveness her mother bared upon her in the past? Either way, nothing could've prepared her for the lies these crooks told. Her crushed heart these dogs broke. Or her innocence these men stole. And from riches to rags, Red slowly begins her quest to find happiness and solitude. Throughout it all will this modern day princess finally have her fairytale? Or will she fall victim to the streets only proving the one thing her mother always warned her . . . BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU WISH FOR!
