About the Author: I've been writing my WHOLE life. Either in my head or on paper. If I'm gazing off in the distance, eyes glazed over, I'm probably watching a scene unfold in my head. But lucky you, you'll get to see it one day, too!

EXCERPT

Forneus approached the bar where a woman wearing a pink wig was pouring shots for a bunch of construction workers. The men had obviously had a good day judging by the amount of shots they were putting back. He waited patiently for the woman to notice him. When she did, when those glittering blue eyes turned to him, he felt a hammer straight to his gut. Not just the ever present kick that his brand represented, but an actual breath-lost, fist to the stomach.

Even if he hadn't known why he was coming to this bar, this strip club, when she turned her eyes to him, he knew.

This was Holly Wolfe.

This was his destiny.
