Falling in love is supposed to be wonderful and magical, but for Lux and Gray, it's also a nightmare filled with strict parents, steep punishments, and no hope of "happily ever after" in sight. That is, until she becomes pregnant, and marriage is the only solution to rectify their sins. But their happiness is short-lived when Gray is drafted into the army. He must leave behind his new wife and unborn child with the possibility of never returning. Some years later, the war ends and Lux has accepted that her husband won't be coming home. Soon, a mysterious stranger with no memory of who he is and who looks oddly like her dead husband enters her life. Blinded by denial and acceptance of Gray's death, Lux struggles to see the truth behind the reality they are living in.
