The Only Thing I Ever Wanted: A Story of Betrayal and Emotional Attachment Ms. W L Humphrey, Mrs. Janice L. Karain

On October 23, 1998, the stars aligned to electrify W L Humphrey's life and instantly infuse it with the possibility of the ultimate elusive. On a whirlwind weekend trip to a major Southern city to visit her brother, a chance encounter began a flirtation with no expectations. At 32 years old, a veteran of the dating world and victim of every matchmaking/dating disaster, she was about to break her own rule by plunging head first into a relationship with an unknown. After years of waiting to meet "the one," her relationship with Jonson evolved into a turbulent trial and error plagued by addiction, infidelity and in-laws. Little did she know a devastating loss at age twelve, Jonson's predilections, his Mother and other factors would conspire to rob her of the only thing she ever wanted.
