There is a time for everything under Heaven. For Em, the ugly ol moth, her time had come to be transformed into a beautiful Butterfly Fairy. Come and be encouraged by Em's journey from being an ugly ol moth, to a beautiful Butterfly Fairy. You will find the great power of forgiveness and the secrets to finding your destiny. About the Author Karin Hockman grew up in the Reno/Tahoe area and spent most of her childhood daydreaming and imagining a world where all creatures were her friends. As a young child, she experienced much heartache. As an adult, she pursued training in spiritual healing, with the intent to encourage others to come into their destiny. Karin has been a prayer Counselor and mentor for nearly twenty years. Currently, she focuses on young girls who struggle with their identities. She hopes through sharing her testimony in Butterfly Fairytales, others will feel the hope and wholeness that comes from blessing and forgiving those who have hurt them. About the Illustrator Kathleen Mooney is a mural artist and has painted hundreds of wall murals in homes, businesses, churches and schools, mostly in the Northern Nevada area. She also paints in oil and acrylic on canvas and furniture. Her passion is to express joy and peace in each creative effort.
