Meet Claire Heller Chapman. A criminal defense attorney who's made a name for herself by taking on—and winning—the toughest cases, Claire still manages to have a relatively calm life as a Harvard Law School professor, devoted wife, and proud mother to six-year-old Annie. Until one night, when the family is out having dinner, a team of government agents bursts onto the scene...heading straight for Claire's husband.

Tom Chapman has been arrested for an atrocious crime he swears he did not commit. Claire is desperate to believe him—and prove his innocence—even when she learns that Tom once had a different name. And a different face. Now, in a top-secret court-martial conducted by the Pentagon, Claire will put everything on the line to defend the man she loves. But as the evidence keeps piling up, the less she knows who her husband really is...and the more he appears to be a cold-blooded murderer.

It can be your alternative within spending your spare time, the actual book you have read will be High Crimes.

David Fulton:

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this High Crimes can make you really feel more interested to read.
