Bess never dreamed that one hot night of passion would put her neck on the line

When she has a tryst with a guard in the stairwell at the castle one dark lonely night, Bess knows she could get caught. Still, she can't resist the stranger's charms or the temptations of the flesh. Once her act of disobedience is reported to the king, she's taken to the tower for the punishments that await her there.

Little does she know the guards are eager to punish her hard and without protection. With nothing to offer them but herself, will she be able to persuade them to let her go before the break of dawn?
