The Wolf's Fee JJ Archer

Anthropologist Serge Bouchard said, "Man is a wolf to Man, which, you will agree, is not very kind to the wolf." Had he studied the society of teens he would've said the comparison was downright cruel.

Wolves don't prey upon one another without cause. Teens do.

Wolves don't torture one another. Teens do.

Wolves don't commit murder...

Amber is a smart teen with a great personality. That's code for fat. But you never see a fat werewolf, do you?

The werewolf lifestyle has its merits. There's just the question of the fee.

"The dynamics of teenage girls were painfully realistic." Alena McNamara, Ideomancer

"There's a bunch of good stuff in this." Jed Hartman, Strange Horizons

"All of the editors at Electric Spec enjoyed [JJ Archer's] story..." David E. Hughes, Electric Spec

"Truly some of the most vivid, lovable characters I've ever read in a short story to date!" Ty Drago, Allegory Magazine

"[JJ Archer] *really* needs to fix that up into a novel!" Nathan Lilly, Everyday Weirdness
